Disciplinary matters, applying to all matters of Dudley Radio Car Club. (Further referred to as the Club), will be dealt with by the Elected Committee of the Club. All members of the Club agree to fully comply with this code of conduct and specific codes of conduct for their role and be bound by its terms as under noted.

Disciplinary action against Club members, including expulsion without notice, may be taken for offences of misconduct or breach of club's rules. However it is recognised and accepted that every member

1. Offences Leading to Disciplinary Action

The under noted actions by members may be interpreted by the Committee to fall within this Code. However the lists are not to be considered as fully inclusive or covering all possible offences.

"Misconduct" is the carrying out of an offence considered to be of a minor nature (unless frequently repeated) and will normally incur a written warning from the Committee together with a demand for full and appropriate corrective action. Examples of offences that may be considered misconduct include: -

- Discourteous, crude or offensive behaviour at Club nights and/or events.
- Conduct of an unsafe nature
- Offensive disregard for equipment or property
- Refusal to carry out reasonable instructions issued by club officials or organisers
- Failure to comply with or adhere to the relevant code of conduct for their position within the club
- Any other actions of similar gravity to the above, at the discretion of the Elected Committee.

Repetition of the above offences or failure to comply with any demands made in writing by the Elected Officers may result in further action by the Elected Officers involving a disciplinary hearing.

“Serious Misconduct” is the carrying out of an offence of such gravity that in the opinion of the Elected Officers it warrants a Dudley Radio Car Club disciplinary hearing. Examples of offences, which may be considered as serious misconduct include: -

- Misconduct offences above if specially grave or repeated
- Deliberate or consistent breaches of club rules
- Any attempt to achieve gains or advantage over others by unfair or unscrupulous means
- Theft or misappropriation
- Use of threatening or abusive behaviour

- Disregard for one’s own or other people’s safety
- Any other action, which in the opinion of the Club Officers may bring the sport or Dudley Radio Car Club into disrepute, or which left unpunished, may result in the detriment of the Club or its members.

“Gross Misconduct” is action of such seriousness that the Elected Committee will require the immediate expulsion of the offender from the club. The Elected Committee may by means of a Committee decision summarily expel such an offender without invoking a disciplinary hearing. The expelled member will have the right to a disciplinary hearing as soon as this can be arranged but will remain expelled until and unless such a hearing overturns the executive decision. Examples of gross misconduct are:-

- Physical violence or assault towards other persons at a Club event or related activity, including serious threatening, intimidating or forceful behaviour
- Reckless disregard of safety and basic safety rules
- Being convicted of criminal offences involving physical violence or abuse
- Other acts that are considered to be of an extremely serious nature perpetrated against the Club, its members or any other party.

If in doubt we will contact the local safeguarding team for advice on how to deal with the complaint.

2. Disciplinary Procedure

On receipt of a complaint from a member, the governing body or any other party the Elected Committee with advice from a Legal Advisor should they so wish, will decide whether the complaint falls within the scope of this disciplinary code. If in their opinion it does, then the Elected Committee will decide as to the type of offence as per (section 1) above.

If the offence is considered to be one of simple misconduct, the Club Secretary will write to the offender with a formal written warning including the demand for an apology or other corrective action the Elected Committee may deem appropriate. The Elected Committee will also attempt to obtain approval for their action from the complainant.

A disciplinary file will be opened by the Elected Officers in which will be placed copies and records of the original complaint, together with the written warning and any other correspondence.

The action outlined above will normally finalise the process unless any of the parties involved object strongly to the Elected Committees decision in which case they may appeal for a final decision.

Should the complaint be considered by the Elected Committee as one of serious misconduct, then the following procedure will be implemented: -

- The Elected Committee will research the evidence presented and, if possible, will obtain further written evidence, witness statements, etc.
- Advise complainant that if a disciplinary hearing is called, then the complainant and all relevant witnesses will be obliged to attend and give evidence. (Non-attendance at a hearing will only be allowed in extenuating circumstances, i.e. Ill-health, threat of violence or intimidation etc). In such circumstances/instances a sworn declaration must be submitted to the Executive Committee
- Contact the member subject of the complaint to advise of the official complaint and request the member to submit a written statement of events
- In cases of disputes of a personal nature, the Elected Committee will attempt to resolve the situation amicably and to the mutual satisfaction of the parties concerned
- If settlement cannot be agreed between the parties, or if the offence merits it, then a disciplinary hearing will be arranged as soon as possible
- Contact the Club's Legal Advisor if required and supply copies of all evidence
